

Valmai Robertson – Arts Scholarship

Policy Guidelines and Criteria

Purpose of Scholarship

- this scholarship is to encourage and assist Southland District Council residents and ratepayers wishing to increase their skills through the attendance of development courses, workshops, projects or study in the arts.
- to acknowledge the substantial contribution and commitment over a period of more than 50 years to the field of dance by Mrs Valmai Robertson of Blackmount.

Policy Guidelines

- the scholarship may be awarded for any of the following arts, but not limited to:

Speech	Drama	Vocal	Writing
Dance	Music	Visual Arts	Craft Arts
- Southland District Council has established a contestable fund of up to $2,500 annually
- the actual amount granted to any individual and the number of grants awarded may be increased or decreased within the set limit, at the discretion of the Scholarship and Bursaries Subcommittee after considering the merits of the applications
- the Scholarship and Bursaries Subcommittee, may at its discretion, decline to allocate the full amount available in any one year, if in their opinion, the number or quality of the applications does not reach the required standard
- in awarding the scholarships the Scholarship and Bursaries Subcommittee will take into account the commitment of the individual, the potential benefits to the individual from participation and, if applicable, the potential benefits to the community
- the applicant, or if dependent, the applicant's parent/s or caregiver/s, must currently be residents or ratepayers in the area administered by Southland District Council and have been so for a minimum period of two consecutive years
- all applicants will be interviewed and are required to provide examples of their work, where appropriate. Applicants are encouraged to ensure their availability to attend an interview on the date stated, as no alternative date will be available.

Closing date for applications: 20 December each year

Applicants are required to attend an interview on the third Thursday of January.
